

8:30 am – 8:50 am Welcome and Introductory Presentation:

“Dysphagia: Demographics and Current Clinical Practice in Japan and North America”
(presentation shared by 1 Japanese researcher and 1 Canadian researcher)

Theme I: Swallow and Cough

8:50 – 9:10 General Introductory Presentation (e.g., Cough Physiology and / or Swallow Physiology)

9:15 – 9:30 Focus Presentation or General Introductory Presentation (Swallow Physiology)

9:35 – 9:50 Focus Presentation (e.g., Cough and ACE inhibitors)

9:55 – 10:10 Focus Presentation (e.g., Cough test)

10:10 – 10:40 BREAK (Refreshments and Conversation)

Theme II: Saliva and Oral Hygiene

10:40 – 11:00 General Introductory Presentation (eg., Physiology of Saliva)

11:05 - 11:20 Focus Presentation (e.g., Oral hygiene)

11:20 – 11:35 Focus Presentation (e.g., Oral care in Canada and/or Japan)

11:40 – 11:55 Focus Presentation (e.g., Oral care in Canada and/or Japan)

12:00 – 1:00 LUNCH

Theme III: To Be Determined

1:00 – 1:20	General Introductory Presentation
1:25 - 1:40	Focus Presentation
1:45 – 2:00	Focus Presentation
2:05 – 2:20	Focus Presentation
2:25 – 3:00	BREAK (Refreshments and Conversation)

Theme IV: To be Determined

3:00 – 3:20	General Introductory Presentation
3:25 – 3:40	Focus Presentation
3:45 – 4:00	Focus Presentation
4:05 – 4:20	Focus Presentation
4:25 – 4:45	Summary, Conclusions, and Future Directions

We would encourage Focus Presentation speakers to devote 10 – 12 minutes to their presentation, thus allowing 3 – 5 minutes for discussion following each presentation.